Summary: These Silent Halls, they scream to me...

These Silent Halls

These silent halls

They scream to me

This punishment I endure

For endless eternity

Sleepless, I dream

Fractured thoughts, memories

Evil deeds, horrid acts

What I lost I can never regain

Silence fills this lofty grave

But I hear these whispers in the storm

Corrupted lies, twisted meanings

A fool was I, to listen

Past mistakes cannot be righted

Forgiveness is outside reach

This vessel of shame becomes me

But have I truly changed?

These Silent Halls, they can't hear me scream

Locked within this monument of sins

But my whispers will carry on the storm

And They will know of everything

End
